

Journal List – updated 02.06.07

NSTA Journals (<http://www.nsta.org> -> use drop down – teacher resources/NSTA Publications):

The Science Teacher

Articles primarily for the secondary school classroom. Good journal for publish new techniques for the classrooms, experiences with published techniques, and tips and ideas that help teachers directly. Check out the NSTA website that gives more detailed information about the submission and review process: <http://www.nsta.org/420>

Journal of College Science Teaching

Like The Science Teachers this journal focuses on articles that can be helpful to the instruction in the classroom – in this case the college classroom. Details regarding submission information can be found at the NSTA website: <http://www.nsta.org/647>.

NCTM Journals <http://www.nctm.org/publications/index.htm#journals>

Mathematics Teacher \(MT\) - a monthly journal for high school teachers.

Online Journal for School Mathematics \(ON-Math\) - a peer-reviewed school journal designed exclusively for the electronic medium.

Journal for Research in Mathematics Education \(JRME\) - a research journal for math educators at all levels.

Specific Content Journals:

Journal of Chemical Education: <http://www.jce.divched.org/Journal/>

The premier and original chemistry education journal. Includes a full range of articles – from tips in the classroom to vetted laboratory experiments to chemical education research articles.